

MOVE

Mapping Our Voices for Equality

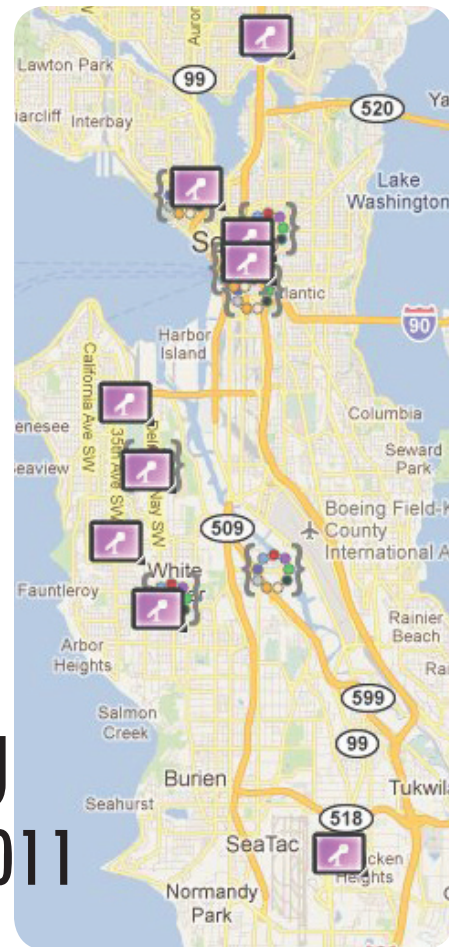

Mapping Our Voices for Equality
Maps and stories to promote healthy communities in King County

SITE LAUNCH

www.mappingvoices.org

OCTOBER 20, 2011

Mapping our Voices for Equality is a grassroots strategy using new media tools to promote health equity in King County. Check out MOVE in action this fall when we host a series of community forums with local decision-makers.

ID on the MOVE

Friday, October 28

3:00 PM -- neighborhood tours

4:00 PM -- presentation & forum

Wing Luke Museum of the

Asian Pacific American Experience

Presented by International Community Health Services and SCIDPDA

Latinos LGBTQ en Movimiento

Thursday, November 3rd

6:30-8:30 PM

Miller Community Center

Presented by Entre Hermanos

Latinos on the MOVE

Wednesday, December 7th

6:30-8:00 PM

Burien Library at Burien City Hall

Presented by Sea Mar

All events are free and open to the public. Light refreshments served.

creative narrations

Puget SoundOff.org

ICHS

International Community HEALTH SERVICES

let's do this

MOVE is made possible by funding from Public Health - Seattle & King County and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services